THE ONLY IMPOSSIBLE JOURNEY IS THE ONE YOU NEVER BEGIN - TONY ROBBINS

Someone once said, “A walk in nature, walks the soul back home.” Actually, much has been said and written about walking, about hiking and trekking, about climbing mountains helping one conquer oneself. These are wonderful to read. And the pictures from those trails are wonderful to see. But what is truly beautiful, is the version of you, that comes back from a hike or a trek or a walk in nature.

Hiking or trekking is the most intense way to experience any place. Because in that process, we soak it all in, our senses acutely tuned in to every sound, every smell, every texture. Which is why the memories that we carry back from any hike or trek, stays with us for a lifetime.

There is no better teacher than nature. And no better classroom than that winding road or that slippery climb. And so it follows, that one needs a good hand to hold, when going to this classroom, for here, one minute you may feel you are on top of the world and the next, you could be reminded how small you really are.

One cannot ask for a better life guide on this journey, than Col Shrot Singh (Retd). For some people, the hills and the winding roads sing a song that only they can hear. That is Col Shrot. He has served in the Indian Army for twenty two years and has mastered the art of exploration. He seldom walks the beaten track and is always veering off to find that unwalked track, that unexplored view, that coming upon a destination that one had not even thought of. A certified yoga instructor, he combines life skills, wholesome living and sheer wonder in what he does.

Introducing ASTROT - a trekking, hiking and camping company founded and run by Col Shrot Singh (Retd), which combines all the joys of the experience of living and engaging with nature.
